

Business Model and Value of Nikke Group

Nikke Group's Vision of Value Creation and Corporate Image

Nikke Group aims to make “social contributions” and “improve corporate value” by always looking ahead to the future with its unique business model that makes the most of the strengths of the Group. We will work to achieve sustainable corporate growth by pursuing diverse human resources, “gathering knowledge”, promoting business diversification and building trusting relationships with our stakeholders.

We aim to be a company filled with vitality where all employees are encouraged to embrace new challenges for growth.	Textile & Clothing Materials <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Contribute to reducing the environmental burden through sales expansion of wool, which is a natural material, and recycled polyester. - Contribution to realizing an educational environment that “leaves no one behind” through the educational support business and the wider use of uniforms. - Contribute to realizing gender equality through the development and sales of materials for LGBT-friendly uniforms. - Contribute to ensuring the safety of people working in harsh environments through the sales expansion of the cut-resistant material, “P-TEX®”. - Contribute to reducing the environmental burden by promoting the collection and recycling of used uniforms through the Ecological Life and Culture Organization.
We will create markets with unique products and services based on the needs of customers and research and development.	Industrial Machinery & Materials <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Promote technological innovation by providing materials essential for EVs and other eco-friendly vehicles, such as Himelon® and motor binding strings. - Promote technological innovation, such as EVs and ADAS (Advanced Driver Assistance Systems) through the provision of FA equipment. - Contribute to improving environmental issues, such as air and water pollution, through the provision of filter-related products. - Contribute to reducing the environmental burden through the provision of solar power generation equipment and energy-saving equipment. - Contribute to people's health through the provision of medical materials.
We will contribute to the continuous advancement of society through global connections and always looking ahead to the future.	Human & Future Development <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Contribute to reducing the environmental burden through the greening business and solar panel installation business. - Contribute to local communities by promoting the care and support for elderly people and their family members who require long-term care support in collaboration with local governments, medical institutions and local communities. - Contribute to local communities by providing high-quality education that develops healthy minds and bodies through the childcare, after-school care and bilingual kindergarten management businesses.
To succeed in various markets, we will diversify our businesses for further innovation and growth.	Consumer Goods & Services <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Contribute to efficient use of resources by promoting sales of emergency blankets for survival kits using recycled polyester. - Contribute to reducing waste harmful to the environment, preventing marine pollution and practicing land conservation by promoting sales of environmentally friendly biodegradable products. - Contribute to people's health by promoting sales of antibacterial films and blue light shielding films.
We will achieve further growth and enhanced corporate value by building strong trusting relationships with all our stakeholders.	*Medical material business <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Contribute to the development of regenerative medicine and reduction of treatment costs through the provision of gelatin non-woven fabric - Contribute to the development of treatments for intractable diseases and regenerative medicine, and reduction of treatment costs through the provision of medical devices, such as non-woven fabric sheets and stents made by bioabsorbable fiber materials. Research and development <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Contribute to promoting effective and safe medical care through research and development of medical materials that are gentle on the body. - Contribute to reducing waste harmful to the environment, preventing marine pollution and practicing land conservation through research and development of natural fibers and biodegradable fibers. - Contribute to promoting effective use of resources through research and development of fiber recycling. - Contribute to improving energy efficiency through research and development of the recovery of unused energy. Company-wide <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Realization of a society where each employee respects each other and plays an active role regardless of gender, age, nationality, experience, or any other personal attribute.

As a corporate group that is “gentle and warm” toward people and the planet, we will continue to evolve with passion and pride.

*Nikke Medical Co., Ltd. established in December 2018